

Stewardship,
as with life, is about making choices;
faith rising;
disciple making;
about being faithful disciples, caring for and managing all God has given us:
the commitment of time, abilities,
and gifts;
a trust from God, for the benefit of all people;
treasure management that is spiritually focused on God;
and the grateful response to Christ's redeeming love.

It begins with you.....We are all part of one world, one church.

Karl Travis, Pastor First Presbyterian Church in Fort Worth, Texas.

Insights to Stewardship: What I have learned: What works.

Karl is one of the more sought after stewardship conference speakers. His refreshing style and outlook, gives new insights to the area of stewardship and generosity.

Tracy S. Ebarb, Consultant, Church Financial Campaign Services, PC(USA)

Re-imagining Stewardship: Rescuing Generosity from a Cash-less society

Is your Church and/or Stewardship Committee aware of the significant changes in the landscape of charitable giving? Maybe it's time to "re-imagine" stewardship altogether, maybe it's time to focus as much on 'money matters' as Jesus did in His earthly ministry. In this workshop we'll address these issues as well as offer a demonstration of how to get your Church set up for online giving and "text giving".

Terri Bate, Director Funds Development Ministry

Teaching how to love the ministry of giving.

Terri is a member of Christ Presbyterian Church, in Canton, Ohio. Terri began service with the General Assembly Council as the Director of the Funds Development Ministry in November, 2008. She is based in Canton, Ohio and oversees the implementation of a comprehensive funds development plan to support Presbyterian World Mission. "Funds development is a ministry for me, a ministry of helping us in our abundance to share with the needs of the world. I see this as a vital ministry with donors and churches as they continue to discover their missional identity in Christ's world."
